You can try your hand at funky kite-making, Halloween fancy dress design and spooky Halloween lantern-making from special air-dry terracotta clay. You can even have a go at creating original colourful puppets to play with at home!

Autumn photography explores the technique of 'photograms' creating black and white photographic prints WITHOUT the use of a camera! Please collect and bring some autumn leaves with you, and remember to dress for mess! Alternatively, at Treasure Island Maps you can escape into the exciting world of pirates and print your very own ancient buried treasure map!

Remember to check out this year's Arts & Crafts exhibition. It is being hosted at Binfield CE Primary School from Tuesday 23 to Saturday 27 October. In the evenings adults can sample a range of workshops from jewellery making to pottery and card-making.

Book early to avoid disappointment! Ring 457777 to book for events hosted in Warfield, 454602 for events hosted in Binfield or 885110 for Winkfield events.

Other News

New Council member

Martin Andrews joins Warfield Parish Council. He is particularly interested in the development of Bracknell and Warfield, the new town centre and housing/office expansion. His experience will add to the Parish Council's expertise.

Frost Folly Trees

This autumn the Parish Council is hoping to plant five semi-mature, indigenous trees at Frost Folly. This is a popular place for picnics and is well used by walkers and cyclists. If you meet at Frost Folly or use it for picnics please take care to look after the area so that it remains a clean and unspoilt beauty spot.

Do you need a grant?

The Parish Council will shortly be setting budgets for the next financial year. Any local group who consider that they may qualify for a grant should apply to the Parish Office no later than 13 November.

Borough/Parish Councillor Surgery Dates

Borough and Parish Councillors are available on the first Saturday of each month from 10.00 – 12.00 to discuss any problems you may have. Next dates to note are: 6 October, 3 November, 1 December.

The Brownlow Memorial Hall

As of 1 August the Lease on the Hall has been re-assigned to the Parish Council and we will be responsible for the management of the building. We are very pleased that the hall continues to be well used and appreciated by our regular users. There is some availability particularly if you're looking for a Saturday party venue. Please call Janis Harding on 457777 to make a booking.

Entertain the family

This year's Northern Parishes Arts Week focuses on the family. Coinciding with autumn half-term, 22nd - 27th October, the arts festival offers a variety of free events for you, your children or grandchildren. Once again the Northern Parishes of Binfield, Warfield and Winkfield have joined forces with Bracknell Forest Borough Council and South Hill Park to create an exciting week of events. Take a look at the programme on the inside pages of The Wren.

Back by popular demand is the 'Big Draw'. This year's theme is parks and green spaces in the Northern Parishes. You will be able to contribute to an enormous memory quilt of drawings, carefully stitched together for all residents to admire.

Popular storyteller 'The Travelling Talesman' will be visiting our library bringing to life a series of powerful mythical and traditional stories in his very own, unique style.

Booster Cushion Theatre Company will perform two shows. 'Little Red Riding Hood & Friends' features a pop star Cinderella and a vegetarian wolf and will require audience participation and mime. 'Big Book Tall Tales' is a comical show focusing on a six foot book on a mission to find another story. Continued on inside right hand page ...
